Hope Lodge®

A home away from home

When treatment is far from home, there's Hope Lodge.

American Cancer Society Hope Lodge communities across the country provide a free home away from home during treatment so people with cancer can focus on getting better. These communities provide comfortable guest suites with private baths, as well as inviting spaces with all the comforts of home, including a communal kitchen, dining area, laundry rooms, and places to gather or find a quiet respite – all at no cost to guests.

Hope Lodge guests don't just find a place to stay – they find a community of support and an emotional connection with others facing the same journey.

At more than 30 locations across the country, Hope Lodge communities serve more than 36,000 patients and caregivers each year.

The first Hope Lodge location opened its doors in 1970 in Charleston, South Carolina.

Hope Lodge guests have come from all 50 states and more than 45 countries.

Hope Lodge communities enable cancer patients from 225+ referring hospitals to receive outpatient treatment.

The Hope Lodge program provides more than 540,000 free nights of lodging for cancer patients and caregivers each year.

In a typical year, the Hope Lodge program helps families save $73 million in hotel expenses.
